EVENT OVERVIEW

New Year's Eve 2026

TIME & ACCESS

Doors open at 7:30 pm. On arrival, enjoy a drink and an amuse-bouche before settling in for our five-course degustation dinner.

Celebrations continue until 1:00 am, and guests are welcome to come and go throughout the night.

As part of your New Year's Eve reservation, each guest will receive access to the East Circular Quay promenade for the evening. Your booking confirmation, together with your digital access pass, will be required to enter the East Circular Quay area on New Year's Eve, so please keep these readily available on your phone when you arrive.

We recommend allowing a little extra time to make your way to the restaurant, as the Circular Quay area is expected to be particularly busy on New Year's Eve.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

By booking New Year's Eve 2026 at Searock, all guests in the reservation agree to these terms.

1. BOOKINGS & PAYMENT

All bookings are subject to availability and are only confirmed once full payment has been received.

Tentative reservations may be held for a limited period at Searock's discretion. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, tentative bookings will be held for up to seven (7) working days prior to 1 December 2026 and up to three (3) days from 1 December 2026 onwards. If payment is not received within the applicable holding period, Searock reserves the right to release the reservation without further notice. Full payment is required to secure and confirm your New Year's Eve reservation.

Any additional food or beverage purchases not included in the prepaid package must be settled in full at the conclusion of the reservation.

One fully itemised bill will be provided per table for any additional purchases. A maximum of two payment methods per reservation will be accepted on the night. We accept credit/debit card and cash payments. Cheques and EFT payments will not be accepted on the night.

2. EVENT TIMING & ARRIVAL

Guests are encouraged to allow additional time to reach Searock on New Year's Eve due to expected crowds, road closures, public transport disruptions, security measures and access restrictions in the Circular Quay area.

All guests are required to be seated by 8:30 pm, when dinner service will commence.

If members of a reservation have not arrived by 8:30 pm, Searock may commence service without them. Late arrivals may be accommodated where possible; however, menu service and timing cannot be delayed for late-arriving guests.

Tables may be released where guests have not arrived within a reasonable period, and no refund or credit will be provided for guests who fail to attend.

Guests are responsible for allowing sufficient time to reach the venue. Delays arising from traffic, public transport, road closures, security measures, access restrictions or other circumstances outside Searock's reasonable control do not automatically entitle guests to a refund or credit.

3. ACCESS TO EAST CIRCULAR QUAY

Access to East Circular Quay may be restricted on New Year's Eve in accordance with arrangements established by the relevant authorities and event organisers. Guests attending Searock may be required to present their booking confirmation and/or approved digital access pass in order to enter the designated area. Where access passes are required, Searock will provide the relevant information and/or digital pass as part of the booking confirmation process.

Guests are responsible for ensuring they have their booking confirmation and any required access pass readily available upon arrival.

Searock is not responsible for delays or restrictions imposed by government authorities, police, security personnel, event organisers or other third parties controlling access to the area.

4. SEATING & GROUP BOOKINGS

All New Year's Eve seating at Searock will be indoors.

We will make every reasonable effort to accommodate seating requests; however, specific tables, locations or seating arrangements cannot be guaranteed unless expressly confirmed by Searock in writing.

For group bookings, guests should arrive together where possible. Searock reserves the right to determine final table allocations and seating arrangements to ensure the smooth operation of the event.

5. MENU & DIETARY REQUIREMENTS

Guests are required to advise Searock of any allergies, food intolerances or special dietary requirements at the time of booking, or as soon as they become known.

We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate notified dietary requirements; however, Searock operates a commercial kitchen where a range of allergens are handled. While all reasonable care is taken, we cannot guarantee an entirely allergen-free environment or eliminate the risk of cross-contact.

Guests with severe or life-threatening allergies must discuss their requirements with Searock prior to confirming their booking.

6. BEVERAGES & OUTSIDE FOOD

Beverages included within the New Year's Eve package are limited to those specifically stated in the applicable package or booking confirmation. Any beverages or other items purchased in addition to the package will be charged separately.

Outside food and beverages, including alcohol, may not be brought into the venue unless expressly approved by management.

7. SERVICE CHARGE & GRATUITY

No mandatory service charge has been added to your booking. Any gratuity or additional amount guests wish to provide in recognition of service is entirely discretionary and is sincerely appreciated by our team.

8. TRANSFERS & CHANGES TO BOOKINGS

Reservations or tickets may be transferred to another person provided Searock is notified in writing no later than 6:00 pm on 29 December 2026.

Where access passes have already been issued or collected, the original guest is responsible for providing the relevant pass to the replacement guest. Searock cannot guarantee the issue of additional access passes where the original allocation has already been provided. Changes to guest numbers are subject to availability and Searock's approval.

9. CANCELLATIONS, REFUNDS & DINING CREDITS

Cancellation requests must be made in writing to Searock. Our New Year's Eve cancellation policy is as follows:

Cancellations received before 30 November 2026: Full refund of amounts paid.

Cancellations received from 01 December to 15 December 2026: 50% of the amount paid will be issued as a Searock dining credit.

Cancellations received from 15 December 2026 onwards: No refund or dining credit will be provided.

No-shows on New Year's Eve: No refund or dining credit will be provided.

Dining credits are subject to Searock's applicable terms and conditions and may be subject to an expiry date or blackout periods.

10. RESPONSIBLE SERVICE OF ALCOHOL

Searock is a licensed venue and operates in accordance with applicable NSW liquor laws and Responsible Service of Alcohol requirements.

Management and staff reserve the right to refuse service or entry to any person who is intoxicated, behaving in a violent, threatening, abusive, quarrelsome or disorderly manner, or otherwise fails to comply with applicable liquor laws or reasonable venue requirements.

Intoxicated persons will not be permitted to enter or remain at the venue.

Searock reserves the right to remove any person whose behaviour is considered inappropriate, unsafe or disruptive to other guests or staff.

No refund or credit will be provided to a guest who is refused service or removed from the venue due to intoxication, misconduct or breach of these Terms & Conditions, to the extent permitted by law.

11. CHILDREN & MINORS

Children and minors are welcome where permitted by the venue's licence and the specific New Year's Eve event arrangements.

Parents, guardians and accompanying adults are responsible for supervising minors within their group.

Guests may be required to provide valid proof of age at any time. Searock reserves the right to refuse alcohol service to any person who cannot provide satisfactory proof of age. All guests must comply with applicable NSW liquor laws and venue requirements relating to minors.

12. GUEST CONDUCT & VENUE RULES

The booking holder is responsible for ensuring that members of their group conduct themselves appropriately and comply with these Terms & Conditions and reasonable directions from Searock management and staff.

Searock reserves the right to refuse entry to or remove any guest whose behaviour is considered unsafe, offensive, threatening, disruptive or otherwise inappropriate.

Guests are responsible for any loss or damage caused by them or members of their group to Searock property, fixtures, fittings or equipment, subject to applicable law.

13. EVENT CHANGES & CIRCUMSTANCES BEYOND OUR CONTROL

New Year's Eve is a major public event and may be subject to circumstances outside Searock's reasonable control, including government or authority directions, public safety requirements, emergency situations, extreme weather, security incidents, access restrictions, road closures, public transport disruptions, power outages or other unforeseen circumstances.

Searock reserves the right to make reasonable changes to the event, menu, seating arrangements, operating procedures or access arrangements where necessary for safety, compliance or operational reasons.

Where circumstances outside Searock's reasonable control require the cancellation, postponement or significant alteration of the event, Searock will communicate with affected guests as soon as reasonably practicable and will provide any applicable refund, credit or other remedy in accordance with the circumstances and applicable law.

14. VENUE CLOSURE & SAFETY

The safety of our guests and team is our highest priority.

Searock reserves the right to close the venue, suspend service, evacuate the premises or otherwise alter operations where management reasonably considers this necessary for the safety and wellbeing of guests, staff or the public, or where required by an authorised authority.

Guests must follow all reasonable instructions given by Searock management, staff, security personnel or emergency services.

15. LOSS, DAMAGE & LIABILITY

Guests are responsible for their personal belongings while attending Searock.

Searock will take reasonable care in operating the venue but is not responsible for loss, theft or damage to personal property except to the extent required by law.

Guests are responsible for any damage caused by themselves or members of their group to Searock property, fixtures, fittings or equipment, subject to applicable law.

Nothing in these Terms & Conditions is intended to exclude, restrict or modify any rights or remedies that cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted or modified under applicable Australian law, including the Australian Consumer Law.

16. PHOTOGRAPHY & FILMING

Photography and/or filming may take place at Searock during the New Year's Eve event for operational, promotional or marketing purposes.

Where reasonably practicable, guests who do not wish to be photographed or filmed should advise Searock management upon arrival.

Any use of identifiable guest images will be handled in accordance with applicable privacy and legal requirements.

17. ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

By confirming and paying for a New Year's Eve reservation at Searock, the booking holder acknowledges that they have read, understood and agreed to these Terms & Conditions and accepts responsibility for communicating relevant requirements to all members of their booking.

Searock reserves the right to update these Terms & Conditions where reasonably necessary to reflect changes in legislation, authority requirements, event arrangements or operational requirements. Where material changes affect a confirmed booking, Searock will communicate these changes to affected guests where reasonably practicable.
